Rebels Finish With 7-3 Mark

The Appomattox Rebels finished the 1969 football season with a 7-3 record and next year should be very rewarding as their were many sophomores and juniors playing a big part on this years team.

Some of the ball players to be on the lookout for next year are as follows: Steve Wilson, quarterback; Mike McCormick, halfback; Plicky Williams, halfback; Jimmy Chandler, halfback; Lee Conner, fullback, linemen, Steve Lawson, Billy Guthrie, Mark Weatherly, Dennis Wilkerson, Ray Tweedy, Charles Phillips and Clayton Cyrus. There are many more that I am sure will be heard about before the season is over.

Graduation will take nine players this year. They are Neal Calhiness, Hal Chambers and Ronnie Henderson, all halfbacks. The linemen are Kenneth Hawkins, Richard Poe, Paul Harvey, Curtis Eagle, Don Conner and Sammy Page.

The four Rebel backs, Wilson, Williams, Conner, and McCormick combined for about 1500 yards rushing last year and they will all be back again this coming season. Their was about 500 yards passing for the Rebels and they had over 2000 yards total offense.

The Rebel defense was very effective as they allowed a little over 250 yards in passing against them and about 1100 yards rushing. These figures include only the last nine games as no record was kept on the first game of the season with Dan River. The Rebel defense recovered 16 fumbles and intercepted 12 passes in the last nine games this year. The defense was let by Lee Conner, Plicky Williams, Steve Wilson, Steve Lawson, Mark Weatherly, Hal Chambers, Billy Guthrie, Paul Harvey, Richard Poe, Clayton Cyrus, Curtis Eagle, Steve Almond and Charles Phillips and others who at one time or another seem to come up with the big play for the Rebels.

The Rebels scored 144 points and gave up 102 (32 against Altavista in the last game) in getting their 7-3 mark. They were shutout one time (14-0 by Dan River in opening game) and shutout two opponents. They scored 36 points in one game for their high.

Appomattox in the 1969 season scored most of their points in the second half. In four of the seven games they won they came from behind or either scoring the winning points in the last half. In one of the thrillers this past season they beat Rustburg 6-0 in the last quarter with one second left on the clock to play in the game. The homecoming game was a 12-8 win over Tunstall as the Rebels trailed 8-6 going into the last quarter, but a driving catch of a pass by Lee Conner gave Appomattox the 12-8 win with about four minutes left in the game. They exploded for 15 points in the game against Randolph-Henry in the last quarter for a 24-14 win and trailed 14-8 after three quarters of play. The Grenta, Staunton River and Nelson County games were all thrillers right to the finish, as Appomattox won 8-6 over Gretna, 20-12 over SR and lost to Nelson 14-6. When Dan River and Nelson beat the Rebels, 14-0 and 14-6 respectively, all the opponents points were scored in the first quarter as the Appomattox defense shut them out the rest of the way but the offense could never get anything going.

The scorers for the Rebels this year are as follows: Steve Wilson, 42 points; Sammy Page, 28 points; Mike McCormick, 18 points; Plicky Williams, 14 points; Lee Conner, 12 points; Ray Tweedy, Curtis Eagle, Jimmy Chandler, Hal Chambers and Ronnie Henderson each had six points apiece.

Sammy Page, senior end, was the leading receiver for the Rebels this year as the pulled in 25 passes for 242 yards in the last nine games of the season. Steve Wilson handled most of the kickoff and punts returns for the Rebels and carried it back for about 275 yards in nine games.

The Rebels are looking forward to next year I am sure as this game of now experienced boys will be out to better this years 7-3 mark. There will be an experienced player at about every position on the team if all goest well and injuries do not bother them. It is congratulations to the Rebels of 1969 on their fine effort and good luck in the 1970 season coming up.

Hunting Permits For Wardens

Continental Can Co. has presented hunting permits to local fire wardens and fire department members giving them permission to hunt on Continental land in Appomattox. R. B. Parris of Appomattox is forester for this area. This is the second year of the program.

Tobacco Barn Lost In Fire

Two false alarms on Monday afternoon brought Appomattox volunteer firemen to the fire station but the third call was authentic, and the county truck and water tanker went almost to Phenix, in Charlotte county, to help the Davis family whose tobacco barn and packing shed was completely destroyed about 6 p. m. The Pamplin volunteer company also answered the call and assisted in controlling the fire.

T-Rebs & Their Trophy

It was party-time for T-Rebs and Cheerleaders as the newest football trophy in the county was held aloft at the Henry (Dee) Doss home following the big win of the T-Rebs season. These 11-12 year old players are Campbell County Little League champions, result of a 2-0 victory Saturday night, Nov. 8. They narrowly missed the championship last year, and although some of the boys have moved on to Junior Varsity status at Appomattox High, some of last year's team were on hand to taste the sweet victory. Cheerleaders enjoying the celebration also include co-captains Kay Chenault and Jeannie Stimpson; Kathy Lewis, Rita Reynolds, Donna Mitchell, Pam Moore, Cindy Harris, Peggy Mathews, Jeannette Clark, Tamera Nash and Jan Stanley. Players include Keith Coleman, Glenn Ford, Jerry White, Phillip Jamerson, Ken Hancock, Michael Preston, Tye Beasley, Ricky Simmons, Gordon Ford, Tony Guill, Steve Weakley, Vern Massie, Gary Harris, Ed Jamerson, Coy Williamson, Mike Quinn, Tommy Wheeler, Warren Coleman, and Ed Bowers. Coaches are David Jones, Fred Weakley, Jack Layne, Dee Doss and R. A. Sears.

Series of Well-Played Games Bring T-Rebs Championship

By: Roy Massie, Pres.
Appomattox Youth League

The Appomattox T-Rebels (11-12 year olds) won the Campbell County Little League Football Championship Saturday night, November 8 at Appomattox High School field by downing Rustburg 2-0.

If you think this was close let's look at what happened in the play-off games that made it possible for the Rebs to reach the championship game.

On Oct. 25th the Rebels played Timberlake in the first round of the playoffs while Rustburg was a beating Brookville 6-0 to gain a spot in the championship game.

In the Timberlake game the Rebels played their usual good game in defense as Timberlake was unable to cross the goal line.

The only T-D the Rebs could get was called back as the ref spotted someone holding. At the end of the regulation time the score was 0-0! But the time for nail biting was not over yet as the rule for a playoff game says a winner must be decided by penetration.

Each team got the ball on its own 20 yard line and started a series of offensive plays that lasted until they scored, lost the ball on a fumble, an intercepted pass or failed to make a first down. (No punts are allowed).

The Appomattox team gained nine more yards than Timberlake to win the game.

One of the Appomattox coaches was seen lying on the ground during the overtime. He saidhe was sighting to see just how much was gained.

This set the stage for the championship game at Rustburg High School for Saturday, Nov. 1, but it rained Sat. night and the game was rescheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 4.

The championship game got underway about 6:30 p.m. as Appomattox kicked to Rustburg, but Rustburg was forced to punt and Vern Massie blocked the punt and soon the Rebel offense was moving as Massie and Warren Coleman moved the ball to the Rustburg five yard line before they lost it in a fumble early in the second quarter. Massie intercepted a Rustburg pass and returned it 20 yards for a T-D.

In the second half the Rustburg offense moved better and the Rebels had two fumbles and a bad punt that kept them deep in their own territory the entire second half.

Rustburg scored in the 4th quarter on a half-back pass to tie the score at 6-6. The extra point was missed and the game ended with score 6-6. There would be no penetration this time as rules called for another game in care of a tie in the championship games.

This brings us to the championship game 8:00 p.m. November 8 on the Appomattox High School field.

The Rebels received the opening kick-off, picked up one first down and then were forced to punt. The ball rolled dead on the Rustburg five yard line.

On the first offensive play for Rustburg they tried a quick pitch out to the halfback for an end sweep but again the Rebel defense was on the scoreboard as well as a young pine plantation on a part of the Ferguson estate nearby.

Smith says that fire risk is still high throughout the area despite several showers of rain. He urged extreme caution on the part of farmers and hunters, alike.

Fire Spotters Save Corn

It was a case of "cows in the corn", or nearly so last Thursday, November 13, as Chief Fire Warden David M. Smith and District Fire Chief Marnard Stoddard were traveling west of Rt. 460 and spotted fire in some open land at the Layne's. The cows kept grazing as the firefighters took over. They were sp placid about the whole thing that Smith says he thought there might be "roast beef" if they didn't move out of the way of a fire that burned about three acres of open land.

An downed electric fence probably caused the fire, says Smith. A nearby corn field was saved as Massie tackled the ball carrier in the end zone for a safety.

That's all there was except for Rebel defense as time and again Rustburg was thrown for losses and failed to pick up a first down the entire game.

In the playoff and championship games the Rebels scored 8 points in each game and allowed the opposition 6 points.

In a total of 10 games the Rebels scored 72 points and allowed 38. They had a won and lost record of Won: 6; Lost: 2, and Tied: 2.

The "T" Rebels would like to thank everyone for attending the games and hope it has not been too nerve racking on the parents.

We knew we could win the championship, but it just takes time.
